

CJC-231 Constitutional Law

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Prerequisites: There are no prerequisites.

Corequisites: None

The course covers the impact of the Constitution of the United States and its amendments on the criminal justice system. Topics include the

- D. The Judiciary Role and Jurisdiction
- E. Congress
- F. The Presidency

III. The Bill of Rights

IV. Religion and the Constitution

V. Due Process

VI. Equal Protection

VII. Civil Liabilities in the Criminal Justice System

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND MATERIAL:

The instructor will determine the textbook and other instructional material.