English For Academic Purposes EFL 092 Composition II

Course Description

This course provides preparation in leintermediate academic and generalurpose writing. Emphasis is placedon writing as a process, paragraph organization and academic paragraph form. Upon completion, students should be able to write and independently edit and understand the major elements of writing sentences, paragraphs, and essays.

This is a hybrid classherefore, online assignments will be given in the equivalency 20 hours per week.

Required Materials

All materials will be linked to Canvas. At times you will be required to print the documents, assignments, and reading material from Canvas. You will need to have access to a printer, or you will need to plan to leave enough time in your schedule to print at one of the student computer labs on campuscol instituter lab schedule webpage more information.

Course Goals

- 1. Students wilmodelpre-writing, writing, revising, and proofreading and editing skills of different types of essays in Standard U.S. English.
- 2. Students will be able toalidate the reliability of sources for use in supporting claims and arguments in academic writing.
- 3. Students will model MLA formatted essays with citations and references.
- 4. Students will be able to compose thesis statements that make original claims or arguments.
- 5. Students will support arguments and claims through the use of analysis and reason in written work and discussions. compose and print documents.
  - Students will produce essays using simple transitional phrases and/or words, and other basic U.S. English syntactical components.

Course Objectives

Learning through course content activities will focus on the following areas:

- 1) Content Knowledge and Vocabulary
  - a) Studentcentered classrooms
  - b)

- d) The writing process
- e) Cyberspace and identity
- f) Current events
- g) Successful language learning
- h) Dumpster diving
- i) MLA citations and formatting
- j) On-demand wrfing strategies
- 2) Essay Writing Strategies
  - a) Review of prewriting, drafting, revising, editing.
  - b) Apply the overall internal organizations of essays: introduction, body, conclusion.
  - c) Introduce analytical thesis statements that make a claim based on outside Tc -Outnts[96prewriting()T3t i

S

- j) Pluralization
- 6) Discussion Strategies
  - a) Present information in collaboration with peers that shows analysis and the ability to make connections among reliable sources.
  - b) Present an argument with supporting evidence following the protocol of debate strategies.
- 7) Presentation Strategies
  - a) Present material in academically organized manner (introduction, details, conclusion)
  - b) Learn to apply feedback in order to improve presentatiskills.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

Learning Student Learning Outcome Area

Evaluation of Performance

Expected or higher ding to signment
•
or higher ding to signment
•
or higher ding to signment
or higher ding to signment
•
or higher ding to signment

Learning	Student Learning Outcome	Evaluation of Performance	Achievement
Area		Туре	Level Expected
Academic	Use the learned he learned technology skilts	In-class activities	80% or higher Success	navigateCanvasin order to access reading	Online/homework	according to materials, view class information, schedules,	assignments	the assignment assignment intsuctions, and feedback; create	Essays	rubric.
	reflection and discussion forum posts on Canvas; download/upload class materials on Canvas; create presentations; use Google Do and Slides to create documents individually a	nd collaboratively and then convert the documents o Microsoft Word and PowerPoint for submission to Canvas

Course Assessments

Attendance Policy

The EAP program has established an attendance policy that requires students to attend 85% of the scheduled synchronous class meetings. The studentered approach to language skills development requires active participation in class; therefore, excellent attendance is mandatory. Students who meiss mo than 15% of the class may receive an R grade for the course, meaning they will not be able to progress to the next level and will have to repeat that course.

Assignments Explanation

Homework, In-class, and Online Assignment(s.e. group discussions, inclass presentations, and discussion of the serval short quizzes provided online and/ordnass. In group discussions and a debate, students share ideas, analyze texts, make connections, reflect on previous activities, and for active questioning and exploration of material. In shortchass group resentations, students share connections and ideas made between class readings and outside research. The length of scheets igroup presentations are 810 minutes. The Discussion of Canvas. The distribution of where students respond to prompts and converse with other classmates on Canvas. The distribution post minimum word count is 150-2000 ords. The two required responses to classmates laaven immum word count of 75 words. At the end of the term, students will also participatenim class writing assessment for the practice of writing OrDemand essays. Students are assessed for allass activities, online/homework assignments using specified rubritized to the course Canvas.

Writing Journal-Students keep a writing journal as a means of selffection through their learning process. These journals will be written ther as an online journation on Canvaer in a journal entry notebook that needs to be brought to every classudents will be asked to reflect on something that they have read wherein they need to indicate what reading assignment that they are referring to by referencing the title of the article and the author (if known). They will also be asked to reflect on their writing strass they complete writing assignments or reflect on writing assignments after the final product is turned in. Theywill have two journations per week. Each entry will be worth 100 points. It will be graded based on the rubric. The length for entry should be between 150 entries per woret t (o)-4 (g(e I)-1.a)-2.8 (s)-3.5 ()-5.6 (o)c