

Learning Outcomes for the Esthetician Program

By the end of the program, the students should be able to

The vocational learning outcomes for the program include:

- Codes of ethics and conduct,
- Use of specialized equipment and products,
- Technical instruction pertaining to:
 - f* Personal skin care treatments and services, business and customer service skills, sales techniques and knowledge of infection prevention and control and occupational health and safety necessary for entry level positions as Estheticians.

Students will need to carefully assess each client's needs and determine appropriate personal 1 (t)-21(.)1 (e)-12-0.008 (o)